

2019 Food Safety Trainings

National Restaurant Association ServSafe® Curriculum

Trainings taught by Colorado State University Extension & Northeast Colorado Health Department.

---

Managers' Trainings

Monday, February 11 – Yuma

8 am – 5:30 pm: Yuma County Fairgrounds

Wednesday, June 5 – Sterling

8 am – 5:30 pm: Logan County Extension Office

Wednesday, November 6 – Akron

8 am – 5:30 pm: Washington County Event Center

Managers' Training Fee:

$100.00 postmarked 30 days prior to training

$125.00 postmarked less than 30 days prior to training

Includes National Restaurant Association Certification Test

Handlers' Training

Tuesday, April 16 – Brush

9 am – 3 pm: Morgan County Fairgrounds

Thursday, September 12 – Holyoke

9 am – 3 pm: Phillips County Event Center

Food Handlers' Training Fee:

$40.00 postmarked 2 weeks prior to training

$55.00 postmarked less than 2 weeks prior to training

---

For additional information contact Joy Akey at Yuma County Extension
970-332-4151

Maximum registration for each class is 30 individuals. Minimum registration is 10.

*Registration brochure for Managers' Training mailed approximately 2 months prior to training.
Registration for Handlers' Training mailed approximately 6 weeks prior to training.*

If you need accommodations due to a disability or have special dietary needs, please indicate when registering.

Colorado State University, U.S. Department of Agriculture and Northeastern Colorado counties cooperating. Extension programs are available to all without discrimination.

