Northeast Colorado Health Department*

Who should attend?

Food Service Managers
 Restaurant Owners
 Colorado Cottage Food Producers
 Food Safety Instructors
 Food Professionals desiring National Restaurant Association certification

Why attend?

Even if you already provide food safety training, ServSafe® is an update on current food safety regulations and procedures. You will be able to become certified in a nationally recognized program from the National Restaurant Association.

You will receive:

Seven hours of food safety training
 ServSafe® Essentials manual
 Opportunity to earn National Restaurant
 Association Certification
 Program materials to train your food handlers
 Food safety resources to use in establishment
 Lunch and refreshment breaks

If you have a disability needing accommodation or have special dietary needs, call 970-332-4151 at least 1 week prior to class.

Training Schedule
